“ I met my friend Shirley in 1964 where we worked as Supervisors at Pacific Bell in San Francisco. I was impressed by her beautiful smile, her deep laughter and genuine frankness to everyone she met. I moved away, we lost contact. After the passing of my husband, I decided to search for her and found her this was a delight moment for me. She invited me on a trip to Hawaii for us to reunite, meeting her again was as though we had never been apart, we spent hours updating each other. We became traveling partners and took cruises together every year until her illness. I will truly miss her for she was one of a kind.

“ My aunt Shirley was a classy lady with a great sense of humour. She enjoyed life with her family and friends. Aunt Shirley visited my mom, Elizabeth Godfrey, almost every Wednesday! She was full of life, love, and a passion to travel. I will never forget her picking me up when I was younger in her brown Mercedes Benz after laughing and spending time with my mom. She was always at family gatherings and had the best laugh EVER! :) My aunt Shirley will be forever missed and the world will not be the same without her. Heaven has gained yet another beautiful angel.
